

The Baltimore

Model 400CSU; 401CGU; 420CSU; 421CGU

Our Baltimore lamp is reminiscent of historic lighting manufactured by the Welsbach Streetlighting Company for nearly a century in Baltimore, Maryland. Carl Von Welsbach invented the incandescent gas mantle lamp, and his fixtures revolutionized outdoor lighting during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. Available in two sizes.

Series A (Small)

Model 400CSU - Solid Top

Model 401CGU - Glass Top

Series B (Large)

Model 420CSU - Solid Top

Model 421CGU - Glass Top

Post Mount

The Baltimore

Product Overview:

- Hand crafted
- Unfinished copper
- Available with a solid top (Models 400CSU & 420CSU) or with glass top panels (Models 401CGU & 421CGU)
- Tempered glass included

Installation Options:

- Post mount fits 3", 3.5" or 4" outside diameters
- For wall mount, combine Series A models with our Copper Bracket and combine Series B models with our Universal Bracket
- For pier mount, combine Series A models with our Heritage Pier Mount and combine Series B models with the Large Six-Sided Pier Mount with 3" outside diameter stud

Illumination Options:

Finish Options:

- Unfinished copper only

